

The French and Indian War

The English colonists were getting crowded in their 13 colonies

They saw all the mostly unoccupied land west of the Appalachian Mountains and wanted to move on to it

Because the colonists had been allowed to develop on their own for so long they figured they could do what ever they wanted and they went across the Appalachian Mountains into French territory with out permission from France or England.

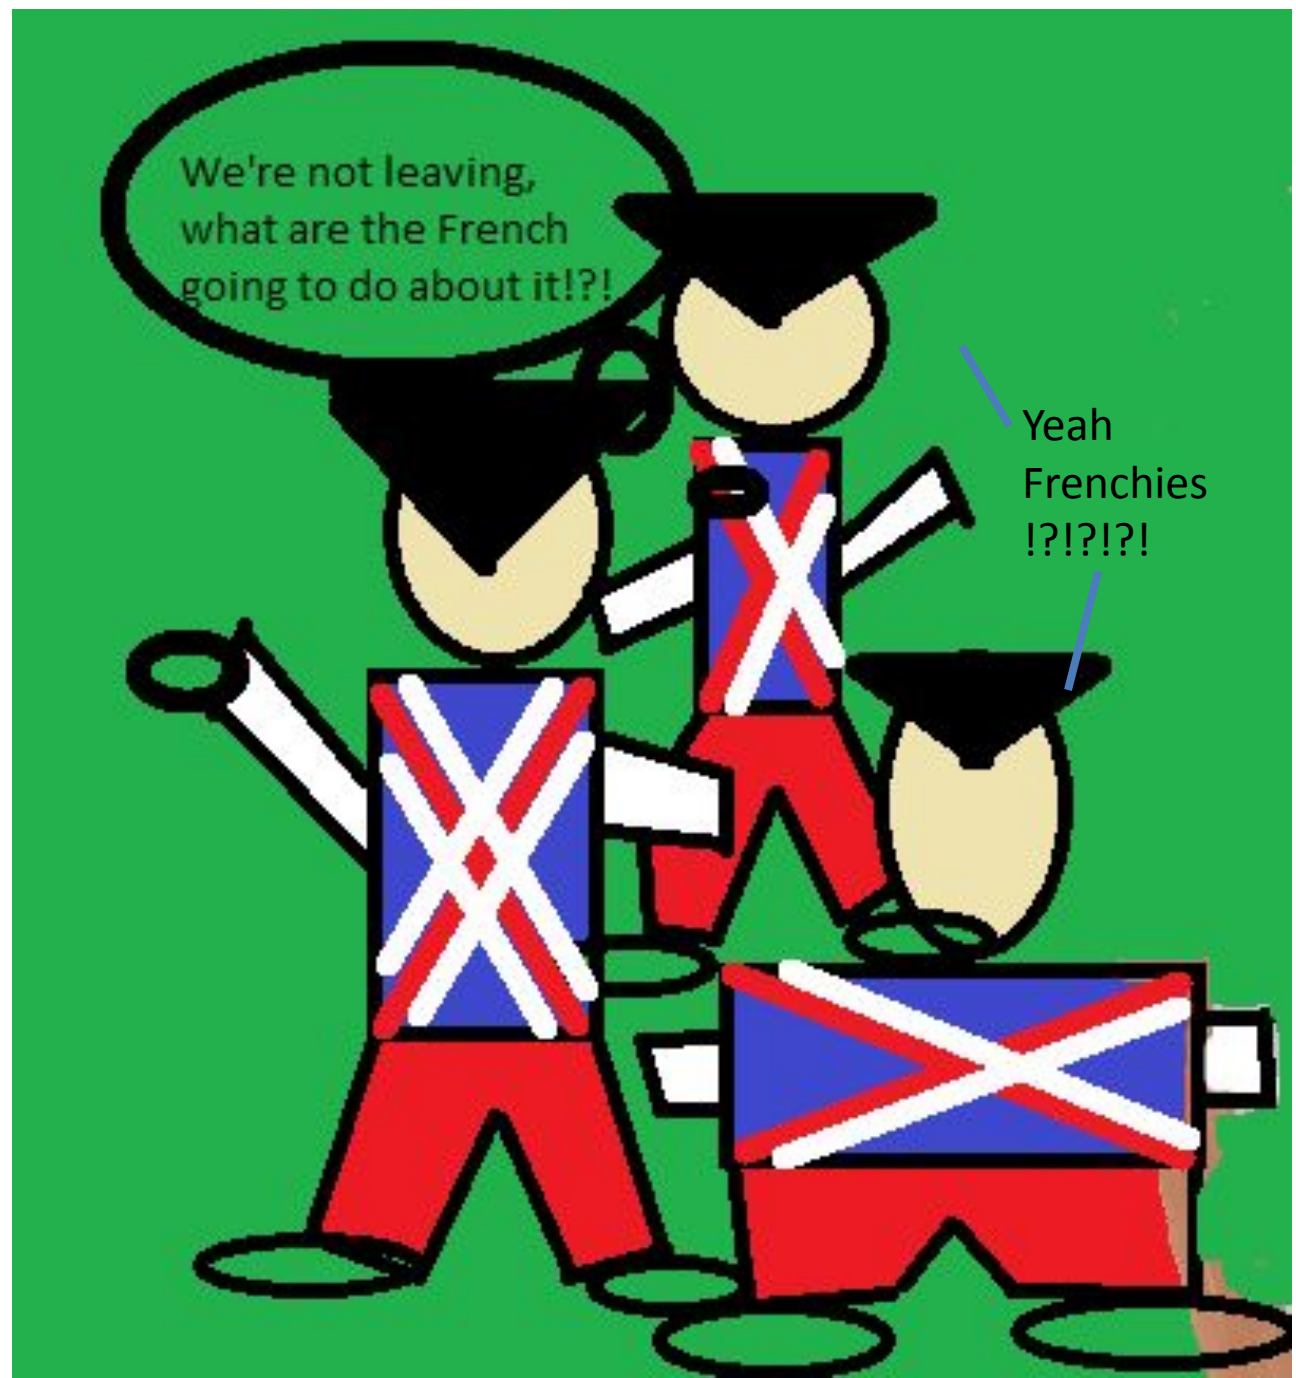

The colonists built settlements in French territory and made the French mad.

The French told them to leave OR ELSE!!

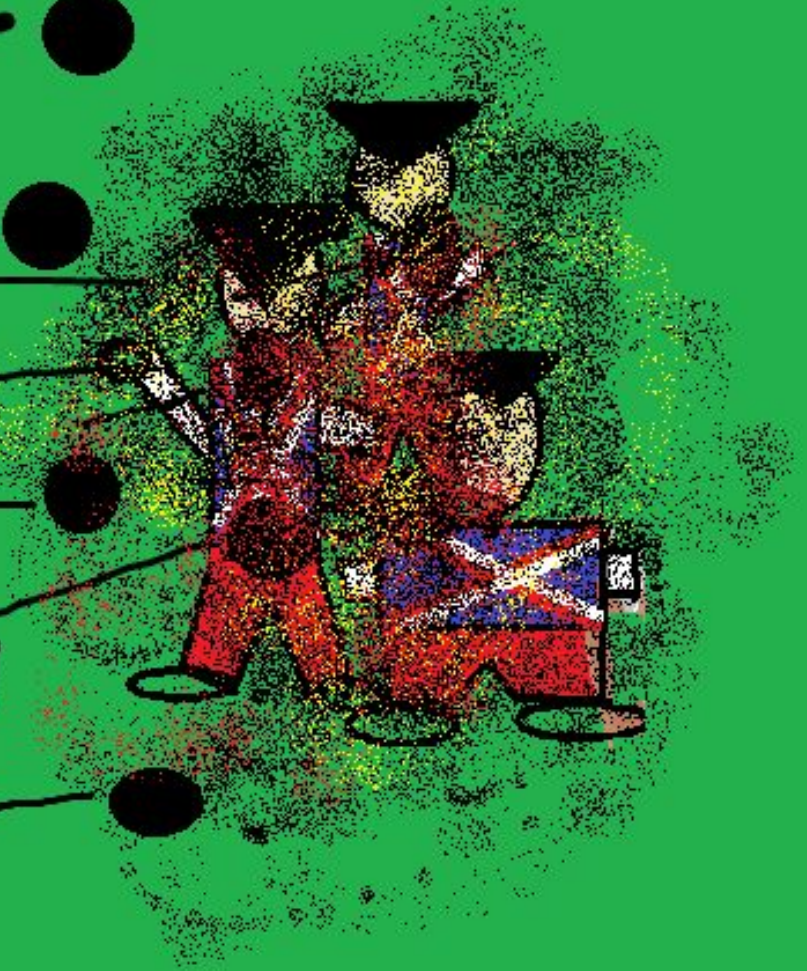

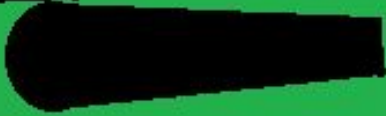

But the Colonists refused to leave

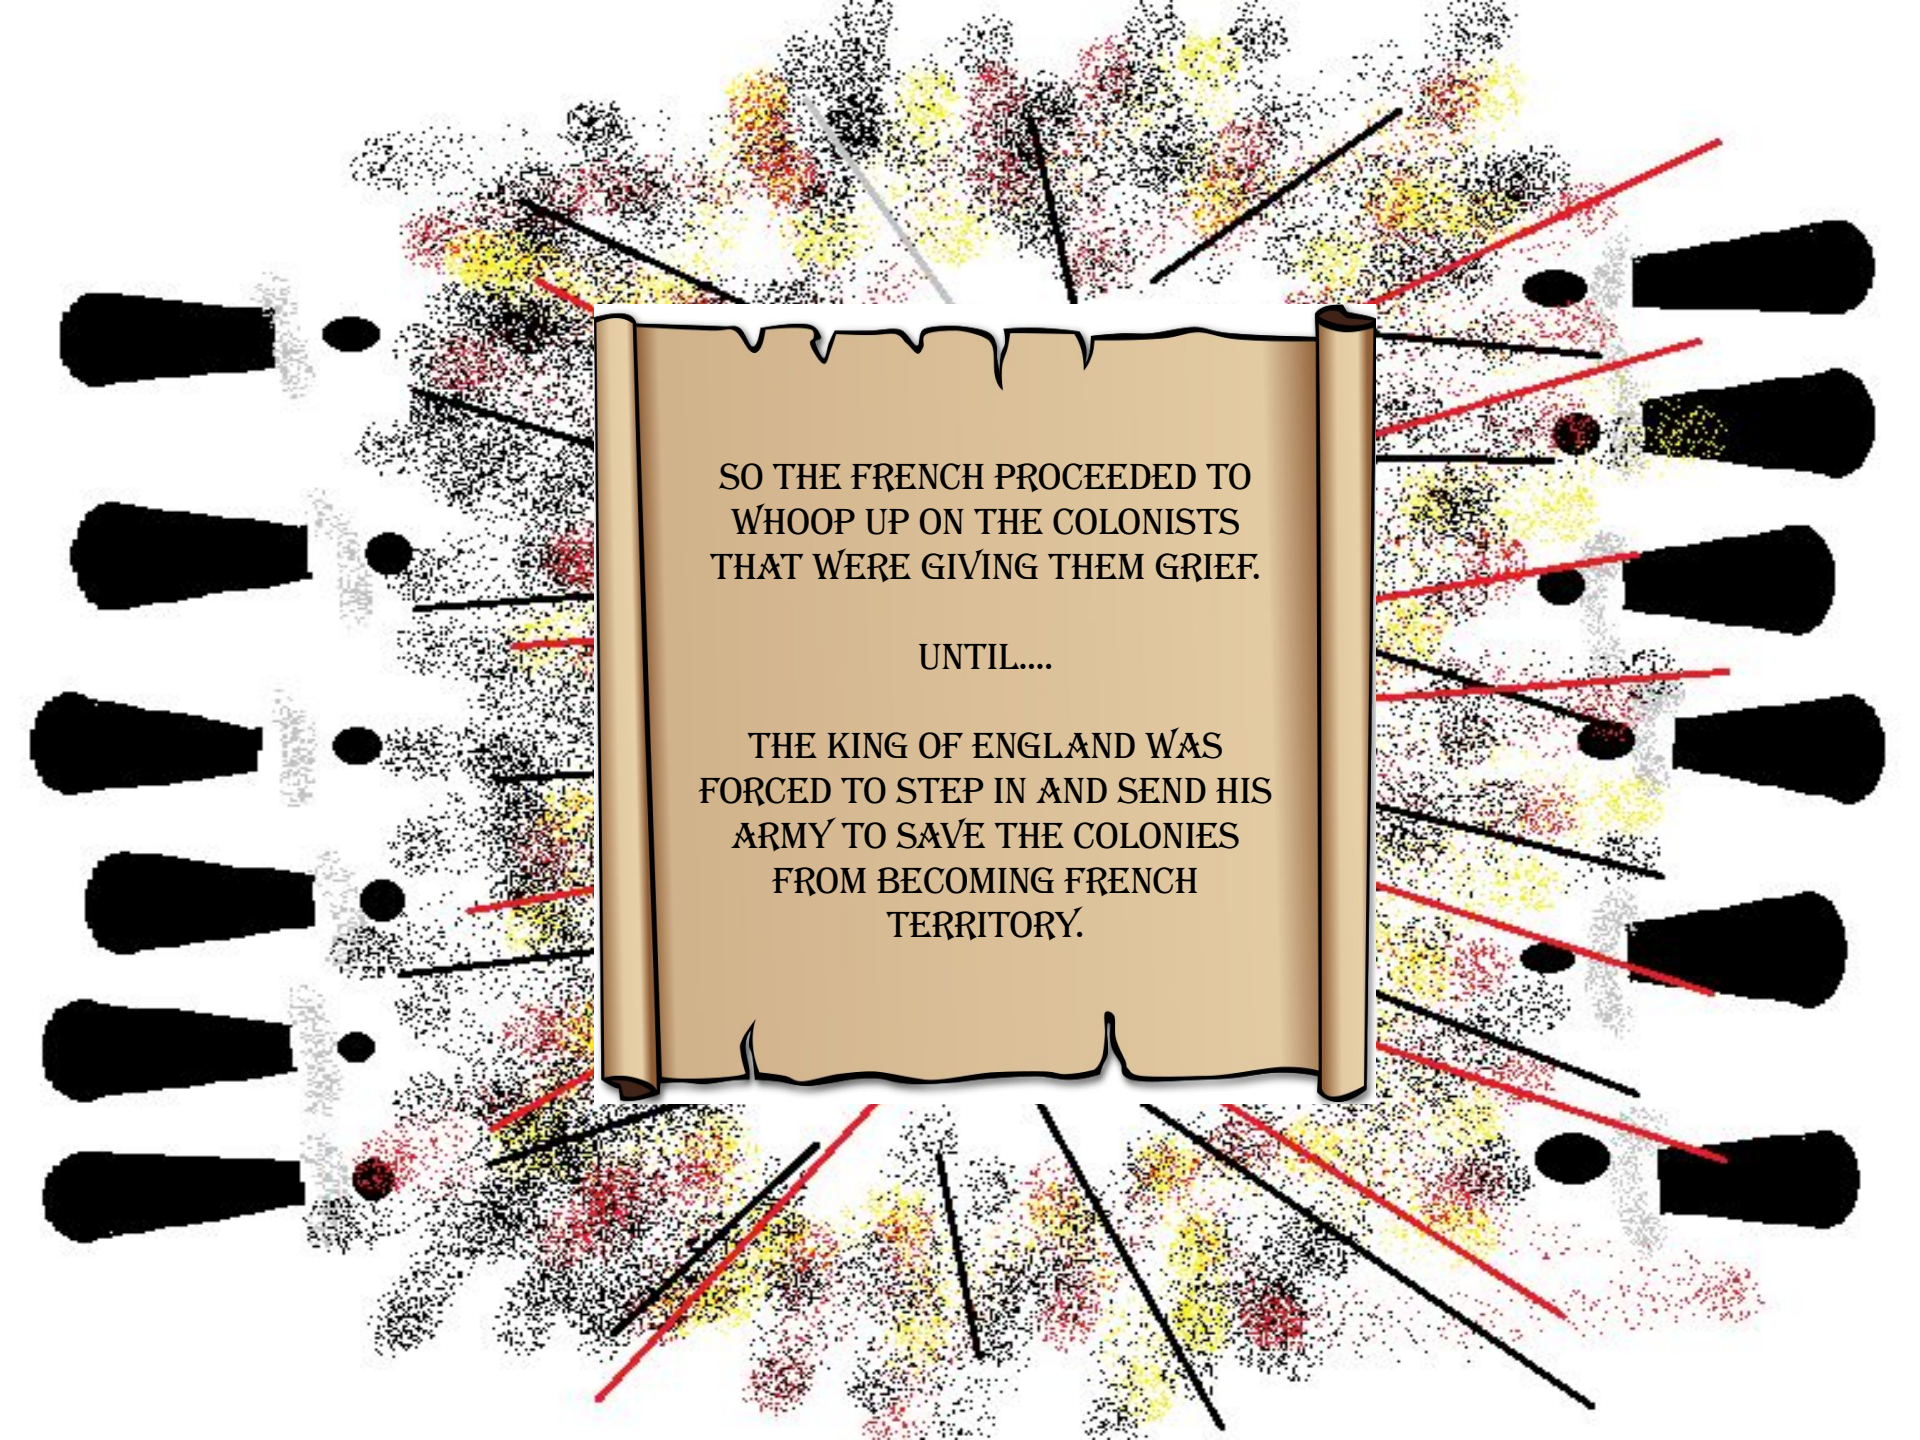

We're not leaving,
what are the French
going to do about it!?!

Yeah
Frenchies
!?!?!?

SO THE FRENCH PROCEEDED TO WHOOPE UP ON THE COLONISTS THAT WERE GIVING THEM GRIEF.

UNTIL....

THE KING OF ENGLAND WAS FORCED TO STEP IN AND SEND HIS ARMY TO SAVE THE COLONIES
FROM BECOMING FRENCH TERRITORY.

Le Oh NO!
Zee Redcoats are here! What will we do now!?!?!?!?

Le Hey, zhou guys hate zee British and so do wi
wi.
Maybi we should fight
zem togehzer

We do hate them more than you. Perhaps we could benefit from this

So the French made alliances with the Natives to help them fight against the English.

Fighting went on for several years

Eventually the British were victorious!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

To end the war both sides met in Paris and signed the Treaty of Paris in 1763.

As a result of France losing the war and the Treaty of Paris, France had to give up all of their land holdings in North America and go home.

That's all Folks!<sup>TM</sup>
